

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
William F. Tate IV, Washington University in St. Louis
Part I: Conceptualizing Urban Space
1 Neighborhood Inequality, Violence, and the Social Infrastructure of the American City	11
Robert J. Sampson, Harvard University
2 Toward a Theory of Place: Social Mobility, Proximity, and Proximal Capital	29
Odin D. Johnson Jr., University of Maryland–College Park
3 Urban Opportunity Structure and Racial/Ethnic Polarization	47
George C. Galster, Wayne State University
4 Racial Segregation in Multiethnic Schools: Adding Immigrants to the Analysis	67
Ingrid Gould Ellen and Katherine O'Regan, With Amy Ellen Schwartz and Leanna Stiefel, New York University
Part II: The Growing Complexity of Metropolitan America
5 Suburbanization and School Segregation	85
Sean F. Reardon, Stanford University John T. Yun, University of California, Santa Barbara Anna K. Chmielewski, Stanford University
6 Schools Matter: Segregation, Unequal Educational Opportunities, and the Achievement Gap in the Boston Region	103
John R. Logan, Brown University Dierdre Oakley, Georgia State University

- 7 Still Separate, Still Unequal, but Not Always So “Suburban”:
The Changing Nature of Suburban School Districts in the
New York Metropolitan Area 125
Amy Stuart Wells, Teachers College, Columbia University
Douglas Ready
Jacquelyn Duran
Courtney Grzesikowski
Kathryn Hill
Allison Roda
Miya Warner
Terrenda White
- 8 Adding Geospatial Perspective to Research on Schools, Communities, and Neighborhoods 151
Mark C. Hogrebe, Washington University in St. Louis
- Part III: Teaching and Learning Research in Social Context
- 9 Conceptual and Methodological Challenges to a Cultural and Ecological Framework for Studying Human Learning and Development 173
Carol D. Lee, Northwestern University
- 10 An Ecological and Activity Theoretic Approach to Studying Diasporic and Nondominant Communities 203
Kris D. Gutiérrez, University of Colorado at Boulder
Angela E. Arzubiaga, Arizona State University
- 11 Reconstructing Education in America 217
Henry M. Levin, Teachers College, Columbia University
- 12 Can School Improvement Reduce Racial Inequality? 233
Stephen W. Raudenbush, University of Chicago
- 13 Seeing Our Way Into Learning Science in Informal Environments 249
Shirley Brice Heath, Stanford University, Brown University
- 14 No Color Necessary: High School Students’ Discourse on College Support
Systems and College Readiness 269
Evellyn Elizondo, University of California, Los Angeles
Walter R. Allen, University of California, Los Angeles
Miguel Ceja, California State University, Sacramento
- 15 Taking Math and Science to Black Parents: Promises and Challenges of a
Community-Based Intervention for Educational Change 279
Roslyn Arlin Mickelson, University of North Carolina–Charlotte
Linwood Cousins, Western Michigan University
Anne Velasco, University of North Carolina–Charlotte
Brian Williams, Georgia State University

Part IV: Research on Human Development, Health, and Human Service Providers in Social Context

- 16 Maximizing Culturally and Contextually Sensitive Assessment Strategies in Developmental and Educational Research 299
Margaret Beale Spencer, University of Chicago
Brian Tinsley, University of Pennsylvania
David Dupree, University of Pennsylvania
Suzanne Fegley, University of Pennsylvania
- 17 Immigrant Children: Hiding in Plain Sight in the Margins of the Urban Infrastructure 327
Michael A. Olivas, University of Houston
- 18 Delivering High-Quality Public Services to Vulnerable Families and Children in America's Cities: The Lessons From Reforming Child Welfare 347
Olivia Golden, The Urban Institute
- 19 Health Disparities Among African Americans in Urban Populations 369
Sheri R. Notaro, Cornell University
- 20 A "Tragic Dichotomy": A Case Study of Industrial Lead Contamination and Management in a Company Town 381
Jill McNew-Birren, Marquette University
- 21 Pandemic Preparedness: Using Geospatial Modeling to Inform Policy in Systems of Education and Health in Metropolitan America 411
William F. Tate IV, Washington University in St. Louis

Part V: Case Studies of Metropolitan Communities

- 22 Urban America in Distress: A Case Study Analysis of Gary, Indiana, 1968–1987 433
Gail E. Wolfe, Washington University in St. Louis
- 23 "God's Will or Government Policy?" Katrina's Unveiling of History and the Mass Dispersion of Black People 455
Jerome E. Morris, University of Georgia

Epilogue

- 24 Research Infrastructure for Improving Urban Education 481
Larry V. Hedges and Nathan Jones, Northwestern University
- 25 The White House Office of Urban Affairs: Regionalism, Sustainability, and the Neglect of Social Infrastructure 505
Ronald Walters, University of Maryland–College Park
- Epilogue: Toward Civic Responsibility and Civic Engagement 523
William F. Tate IV, Washington University in St. Louis
- Index 527
- About the Contributors 545